

Government of South Australia

Department of Human Services

YourSay – Restrictive Practices Guidelines Survey

All fields marked with an asterisk (*) are required.

1. Tell us about yourself. You can choose more than one answer.

- a. Child / young person with disability ☐
- b. Adult with disability ☐
- c. Carer of a person with disability ☐
- d. Registered NDIS provider ☐
- e. Behaviour Support Practitioner ☐
- f. Other ☐

- Please describe

2. Lived experience. You can choose more than one answer.

- a. I have not experienced restrictive practices ☐
- b. I have experienced restrictive practices in a disability services setting ☐
- c. I have experienced restrictive practices in other settings ☐
- d. Other ☐

- Please describe:

3. Inclusive and effective practice with people with disability is at the heart of reducing restrictive practices. Have the guidelines captured this practice context?

- a. Yes ☐
- b. No ☐

- Please describe:

4. Should the guidelines provide more detail on the search provisions in the Act?

a. No ☐

b. Yes, need to limit search powers to premises where disability supports are provided on a 24/7 basis ☐

c. Yes ☐

- Please describe:

5. Should the guidelines differentiate between environmental restraints that are used in community-based group homes compared to other settings?

a. No ☐

b. Yes ☐

Comment

6. What should happen when a decision about restrictive practices is being appealed by a person with disability, their family member or nominated advocate?

a. The decision cannot be implemented until the appeal is heard ☐

b. The decision can be implemented until the appeal is heard ☐

c. The decision can be implemented until the appeal is heard, but only if it is required to prevent a serious risk of harm to the person with disability or someone else ☐

7. Should there be a way for people with disability, their family members or nominated advocate to provide information to be considered in the authorisation decision by the Authorised Program Officer or the Senior Authorising Officer?

a. No, the behaviour support plan is the best way for all the different perspectives to be documented ☐

b. Yes, there should be a way for people with disability and their families to directly contribute to authorisation decision about restrictive practices ☐

Comment

8. Is the guidance about chemical restraints clear and helpful?

- a. Yes ☐
- b. No, more clarity is required ☐

- Please describe:

9. Is the guidance about environmental restraints clear and helpful?

- a. Yes ☐
- b. No, more clarity is required ☐

- Please describe:

10. Is the guidance about mechanical restraints clear and helpful?

- a. Yes ☐
- b. No, more clarity is required ☐

- Please describe:

11. Is the guidance about physical restraints clear and helpful?

- a. Yes ☐
- b. No, more clarity is required ☐

- Please describe:

12. Is the guidance about seclusion clear and helpful?

- a. Yes ☐
- b. No, more clarity is required ☐

- Please describe:

13. Is the guidance about the use of force clear and helpful?

- a. Yes ☐
- b. No, more clarity is required ☐

- Please describe:

14. Is the guidance about detention clear and helpful?

- a. Yes ☐
- b. No, more clarity is required ☐

- Please describe:

15. Is there anything else that you would like to share with us?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....