We recognise Aboriginal peoples
as the traditional owners of our land
– South Australia.

They were the first peoples to live on and use the Australian land and waters.

About A Place to Create

We have made a plan for arts and culture in South Australia.

The plan is called 'A Place to Create'.

The plan is for how to have a good future by making strong communities, fun places and connecting people with arts and culture and creative industries.

Arts and culture can be painting, drawing, music, dance, theatre, books, festivals, and lots of other things.

Creative industries are businesses in screen, craft, design, fashion, games, and much more.

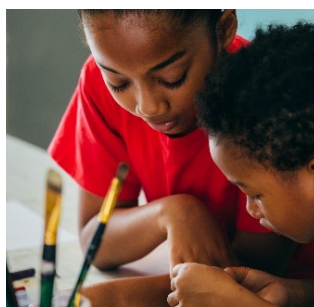

Communities in this document are all the different groups of people that live in South Australia.

We made the plan because we want

Aboriginal people to be leaders in art.

Young people to make art.

Regional South Australia to have lots of art and artists.

Everyone to be able to take part in art.

South Australia to have very good arts and artists.

Places like the Art Gallery of South Australia and the South Australian Museum to share stories about South Australia.

South Australia to have lots of different art and culture.

Arts to help the environment.

We will make this happen by

1. Making arts for everyone

Making sure everyone can go to arts events.

Making sure everyone can try doing different types of art.

2. Being the best place in the world for artists to live

Making sure that artists are supported to work.

Making sure artists are supported in their lives.

3. Helping arts businesses do well

Supporting arts businesses.

Making sure arts places are disability friendly.

Helping arts businesses to work together.
